

I was outraged at last night's half time show. It was not limited to Janet and Justin's breast stunt. The lyrics to the Rap Songs were offensive and the fondling of themselves during the half time show on CBS NFL Super Bowl. As usual, everyone is pointing the finger at someone else. I am sick of it. I can't even watch TV alone or with my kids as the commercials alone are offensive, violent and pornographic in nature, forget about decent tv programs We need to set limits. Please do something for the kids!
